Introduction

Biblical Astrology is the use of sound Bible Doctrine to understand the divine order of the Heavens and the Spiritual meaning of planetary and stellar configurations. The Heavens declare the glory of God. The Bible is the only source of truth about astrology. God created the Universe with its stars and planets for signs and seasons. The harmony of the heavens indeed reflect the Glory of God and all of His creation. God's truth about astrology is not related to the lies of Babylon and, thus, has nothing to do with traditional horoscopes.

Natal charts include all aspects of the Planets at time of Birth. Many times, the influence of one aspect may contradict another. For example, Sun in Sagittarius suggests its influence that you express yourself in a very open, direct, and straightforward manner, but Mercury Conjunct Saturn suggests its influence that you are rather reserved, uncommunicative, and uncomfortable with light, frivolous conversation. When there are contradictions with any Planetary influence, they do not cancel each other out, but rather one may be stronger an influence than another, and you want to develop yourself according to the greater character toward your higher self, that is full of the Light of the Creator.

Congratulations _____!! You were born in the fiery month of Kislev - Sagittarius! By God's design, Jupiter is the ruling planet of Sagittarius. This means that you were born in the month in which we find security, well being, and hope, provided that we don't allow ourselves to slip into complacency and self-righteousness. This month is considered an extremely positive month. There is so much Positive Energy! Sagittarius is a fire sign that is intimately associated with the element of air. This is taken to mean that those born in this month are propelled by fire, like a rocket, by a force lying deep within their spirit. Early in your childhood, you are most likely to be one who distinguishes himself from the rest of the group by constantly looking for new challenges. Your adventurous behavior, if not balanced by good judgment, can make you somewhat irresponsible. Testing yourself is what interests you. Pressure nourishes you. If you have an exam coming up, you will most likely wait until the very last minute to study for it. Rather than causing anxiety, the added pressure actually helps to bring out the best in you. You may need to feel pressure in order to succeed. Without it, you may lose interest very quickly. Any mistake you make is engraved in your memory for future reference. You may be too proud to admit it, but you do listen to criticism. You learn from it and use it to make your Tikkun (Correction). You even learn from your friends' mistakes very well, and integrate those experiences into your own development. You see everything as an opportunity to learn and progress. Sagittarian Tikkun is quite easily attainable, since they naturally strive to progress, learn, and control their own destinies. As soon as you are confronted with a problem, you will search for a way to solve it. You accept the discomfort in order to stretch yourself, and this is exactly the way to self-improvement and correction.

The Earth is so blessed to have you in this lifetime! Most artists would be content with a pictorial description of human history in the sky, but God in His infinite wisdom has done much more. He has made the picture in the sky a living work. The signs in Heavens, like a master clock, are precisely orchestrated with individual lives and events of history. The meaning of your birth is reflected overhead with divine meaning. The chart of the planetary configuration in the Zodiac at the time of your birth reveals the purpose and meaning of God's creation of you! Just as the Lord told Rebekah that two nations were in her womb when she was pregnant with Jacob and Esau (Gen. 25:23), He created you for a purpose and He ensures the completion of that purpose and the Heavens are synchronized to your Destiny. You are Fearfully and Wonderfully Made!

Please read this Cosmo forecast discriminately. Reading your Natal Chart is never meant to make you feel controlled or bound by them like a written law in any way. Even though we know there are influences all around us, you must know that you have the power to change how you react to any type of influence. Your life journey includes the responsibility to correct that which is out of alignment with your Greater Self, which is in the Image of your Creator. This is known as your "Tikkun". Your Tikkun is Leo, and you can read that at the end of your natal chart. You can only change in those areas where you have made your heart ready and willing to change, and ideally according to the ways of The Lord. This astrological forecast is to help you know yourself better and discover your gifts, weaknesses, challenges, talents, and purpose so that you can develop yourself in greater light that is in alignment with The Creator, God. For God created you with a divine Purpose that only you can fulfill. Being led by the Spirit of God, I have added two personal scriptures for you; your Scripture for Spiritual Guidance and Your Scriptural Prayer for your calling that are evident from your natal chart.

Your Scripture for Spiritual Guidance

Proverbs 22 is your primary word for Guidance.

God's Word is altogether Glorious, full of wonders for man to explore for a lifetime. The BIBLE acronym is so fitting for you, as it is absolute; Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth. God's Word will secure your path so that you reach your Destiny and fulfill your Purpose (Jer.29:11). Without it you can be misguided by others who have another agenda to keep you from your calling. According to the stars, your calling is Huge. Therefore, you will be greatly encouraged to keep your focus on the Lord, who is the Light of the World. He will light your path, and keep you safe and prosperous, so that you overcome all the tricks of the one who comes from darkness to steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10)

Proverbs 22:1-5 \(read more\)

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it....

The Prayer of Jabez is your Prayer

The Prayer of Jabez comes from the Bible. In 1 Chronicles 4:10, we read: "And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that Thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that Thine hand might be with me, and that Thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested." The prayer is composed of four parts. First, Jabez asks God to bless him. Second, he asks God to enlarge his territory or increase his responsibility. Third, he prays that God will be with him and stay close. Lastly, Jabez asks that God keep him from harm so that he will be free from pain.

Dear Lord, May I call upon you in my time of promotion, that you would bless me indeed and enlarge my coast and my territory that you have ordained for me, and that Your hand may always be with me. Please keep me from evil, that I may not be grieved! Lord, GOD, grant me that which I request, in Jesus's Name,. Amen.

Chapter 1: How You Approach Life and How You Appear To Others

Aquarius Rising:

Forward-looking and progressive, you are a person who supports change, innovation, and human advancement, and you are often strongly committed to a humanitarian cause or social improvement. You are extremely aware of the interconnection and interdependence of all people, and are always relating personal issues to some larger framework. You see the political or social ramifications of personal actions, and you wish to contribute something of value to the world, or at least to your community or group.

The ideals of equality, fairness, human rights, brotherhood, social justice, etc. color your whole outlook and approach to life. You are truly interested in the good of the whole and not only your own personal well-being.

Sometimes you may overlook or ignore your own and others' personal needs, desires, and feelings, especially if they do not conform to your ideals of how one SHOULD feel or act. Though you have little patience for conservative narrow-mindedness, you yourself are sometimes dogmatic about your beliefs and ideologies.

You are attracted to the avant-garde, the latest advances in human thought and development, and you are eclectic and cosmopolitan in your tastes. You may consider yourself a "global citizen" rather than claiming a narrow, limited identification based on nationality, race, familial heritage, etc. You are strongly influenced by your peer group and the flavor of the times in which you grew up, more so than by parental or family influences. You are involved and active in groups, community efforts, cultural and progressive movements.

On a personal level, you are friendly and express a kind of impersonal good will towards others. You probably have many acquaintances but few really close friends, and much of your closeness with others is based on a sharing of common ideals and principles, rather than on emotional ties. Others see you as a good friend and comrade, who is objective, fair, and rather detached emotionally. You do not often show your emotions, and may be unsure how to respond to others' emotional expression, for you tend to be very rational.

You are also very independent and refuse to be possessed by any individual. You are not comfortable with traditional sexual roles and are inclined to have "liberated" views about marriage, relationships, sharing of child rearing responsibilities, etc. You need to have a life outside of the personal, domestic sphere and to be involved with people on a broader scale. The nurturing of family ties, and close, deep, personal sharing may take a back seat to your work or outside social involvements.

Chapter 2: The Inner You: Your Real Motivation

Sun in Sagittarius:

You are a gambler and an adventurer at heart, one who loves to take risks, to discover and explore new worlds, and to take the untried path rather than the safe, reliable one. You are an independent soul, freedom-loving, and often very restless. You need a lifestyle that provides opportunities for travel, movement, change, and meeting new people. A steady routine which offers much in the way of security but little in the way of space and freedom is odious to you.

To you, life is a journey, an adventure, endlessly interesting and rich with possibilities, and it may be difficult for you to decide where to focus your attention and efforts. You probably traveled around and experimented with many different paths before you settled on a particular career. Or you may go from one project to the next, for once the challenge and vital interest is gone, you are very quick to move on. Commitment, discipline, focus, and concentration are not your strong points. You can be irresponsible and disinclined to take on the burdens and limitations of adult life.

An incurable optimist, you have big dreams, aspirations, and hopes for the future and are usually pursuing some distant goal. You have a great deal of faith and trust in life and failures don't crush your spirit. You always bounce back from disappointments, often with another bright dream or scheme. You have a sporting, playful attitude toward life and are philosophical about your mistakes. You have the ability to sense future trends, to see the big picture, and you like to theorize and speculate. However, attending to all of the details and practical requirements of implementing your theories is bothersome to you.

You express yourself in a very open, direct, and straightforward manner and are often blunt and tactless as well. Because you do not take yourself too seriously, you may not realize how deeply your candid statements can wound more sensitive souls. In fact, though you may not realize it, your insensitivity and lack of understanding regarding others' feelings is probably one of your worst faults.

You do enjoy friendship and camaraderie, but you need freedom also and do not do well with a possessive, clinging, or emotionally demanding partner. You are quite generous yourself, and heartily dislike pettiness in others. Someone who shares your ideals, your sense of fun, and your zest for life would be the right companion for you.

Sun in 9th house:

World travel, foreign cultures, and studies which expand your intellectual horizons and broaden your understanding of the world are very attractive to you.

You have a philosophical turn of mind and are concerned with seeking answers to the big questions of life or getting the overview of any situation. Abstract concepts and/or plans for the future occupy your mind much of the time.

Sun Square Neptune:

You are extremely sensitive and imaginative, and you can get lost in your dreams, fantasies, and visions. You are attracted to artistic and creative pursuits, the world of color, beauty, and emotion. You are also drawn to mysticism and have deep spiritual aspirations and yearnings. Gentle and peace-loving, you may lack the will and competitive spirit needed to make your way in the world. You are often impractical and may seek to avoid or escape the hard realities of life.

Chapter 3: Mental Interests and Abilities

Mercury in Sagittarius:

You possess vision and foresight, and your mind is often occupied with big ideas, plans, and goals for the future. You are interested in what is possible and what is on the horizon, rather than what has already been done. The study of philosophy, religion, politics, or education is of interest to you, and you are more concerned with theories and concepts than with specific applications. You are not inclined to focus on any one practical, concrete area; you find it irksome to deal with details and particulars. You have a gambling instinct and enjoy speculative enterprises and new ventures. Business, advertising, and promotion would be good areas for you also.

Mercury in 10th house:

You think a great deal about your career, your reputation and public image, and the way you make a contribution or impact on the world at large. Public speaking or communications of some other kind is likely to be an important aspect of the work you do.

Mercury Conjunct Saturn:

Your mind is serious and deep, and you will rarely offer an opinion on any matter until you have thoroughly considered and studied it. You have excellent powers of concentration and enjoy studying or thinking deeply in solitude. You have an aptitude for research or doing mental work which requires precise, organized thinking, attention to detail, and a methodical approach. You are conservative and something of a skeptic, and may be narrow-minded and closed to new ideas, especially if there is no concrete proof or scientific verification of them. Socially, you are rather reserved, uncommunicative, and uncomfortable with light, frivolous conversation.

Mercury Trine Uranus:

Independent and free-thinking, you dislike being told what to do and how to do it, and you especially do not like being told how to think, for you insist on discovering your own truth. You do well in a rather unstructured environment that allows you to make your own decisions and to respond to the needs of the moment, rather than following a routine, standardized way of doing things. You are also suited to a fast-paced atmosphere, which you find exciting and stimulating. Your mind functions in an intuitive, nonlinear fashion and sudden insights and flashes of inspiration often come to you "out of the blue". You have an aptitude for science and new technologies especially interest you. You also have a penchant for astrology or other esoteric sciences.

Moon Square Mercury:

You are not interested in subjects that are wholly abstract or technical. There must be a personal, human element to evoke your interest. Your interest is people and their inner motivations, feelings, personal lives, and experiences. You are a natural listener with a talent for getting others to talk about their lives, dreams, desires - the things that are personally meaningful to them. You could also be an excellent writer, reporter, or biographer.

You have a particular interest in the past. You are concerned either with personal history (childhood and early family experiences, genealogy, etc.) or with the roots and origins of societies (archeology, mythology, history, etc).

You are nostalgic and love to hear others' life stories and to discuss your own experiences and feelings. You like to read biographies and memoirs, and probably keep a diary or journal yourself. You also have the ability to be a successful public speaker.

Chapter 4: Emotions: Moods, Feelings, Romance

Moon in Aries:

Emotional outbursts are frequent with you due to your fiery temper and emotional impulsiveness. You express yourself very directly and honestly and no one has to guess what your true feelings are. However, you dislike showing any personal weaknesses or needs for support, comfort, and nurturing. You are often impatient with yourself and with others. You abhor emotional dependency and dislike "complainers".

You inspire others to take positive action in their lives by your own enthusiasm and eagerness to meet life's challenges, and are attracted to people who are adventurous, courageous, and independent. You are rather bossy, but you do not like to be with people that you can boss around too much. You enjoy a good fight sometimes. Relationships built upon mutual respect and a good deal of emotional freedom are ideal for you.

You become very cross if you do not have enough vigorous physical activity. You will feel your best if you "do battle" on the tennis or racquetball court (or engage in some other competitive sport) frequently.

Moon in 1st house:

You have a soft exterior and tend to relate very personally and sympathetically to other people. However, you sometimes let your emotions overpower your reasoning and logic, and consequently you are sometimes biased in your opinions. You are impressionable and rather gentle, or at least that is the way you appear. Your feelings are on the surface and you can not hide your emotions.

Moon Square Saturn:

You often feel that you must do something or be something other than what you are in order to receive approval and acceptance from others. You are very sensitive to criticism and easily feel left out or neglected, and though you may appear cool or distant, you actually care very much about being included. Because you are so sensitive, it may seem easier for you to withdraw into a shell rather than risk the emotional bumps and bruises that can occur when you let others really know you in an intimate, personal way. Your reserve and caution make establishing a close emotional rapport with others difficult for you, and you become very attached to the few people you consider "real friends". You can gain inner security and strength through periods of solitude if you view them as times to nourish yourself and develop your own interests, rather than as times of loneliness.

Moon Trine Venus:

You feel that little, daily acts of caring and thoughtfulness are essential to the happiness and success of a relationship and you know how to make others feel accepted, loved, and cherished. You enjoy good relationships with women.

Venus in Scorpio:

In love, you desire a deep, intense, passionate union with your beloved and form very strong emotional bonds and attachments. You "marry" the person you love at a very deep emotional level, and are often extremely possessive and jealous of any threat to that union. You can be very demanding with your love partner. You tend to be somewhat suspicious of even platonic, friendly relationships your partner has. If you are ever betrayed, you are capable of hating with as much force and intensity as you once loved. You are attracted to people who have an aura of mystery about them.

Venus in 9th house:

You are attracted to foreigners, exotic places, traveling, and to people who can expand your horizons, teach you something, or show you places and worlds you have never experienced before. Sharing a philosophy or ideal with your love partner is important to you.

Also, you feel a love and kinship for people everywhere, not only with your own family, nationality, or group. Finding similarities and making links between people from differing backgrounds or with different perspectives is a gift of yours.

Chapter 5: Drive and Ambition: How You Achieve Your Goals

Mars in Libra:

You seesaw between being too pushy, confrontational, and insistent on doing things your way, and being too eager to please, without a clear, definite goal of your own. You strive for a balance between acting independently and assertively - and working cooperatively and interdependently with others. You may feel frustrated at times that you cannot simply do what YOU want to, that you must always accommodate the needs and desires of others. Or you may feel hesitant to act in a positive, assertive manner if you do not have the support and approval of other people. Either way, you are not a loner. You achieve your goals by collaborating and joining forces with others, by being a team player. You are very concerned with the concept of fairness and become quite indignant and vocal if you sense someone is being taken advantage of. You avoid extremism and favor a balanced, moderate approach to living. You are unlikely to push yourself too hard or to become fanatically driven to reach your goals.

Mars in 8th house:

You meet numerous challenges and possibly defeats in pursuit of your goals and desires, and your setbacks often occur because you've been too rash or intent on working your own will regardless of the impact on others. You are intense and passionate, and simply don't know when to stop sometimes! Recklessness with others can be a problem for you.

Mars Opposition Uranus:

Intensely restless, dynamic, and energetic, you are always on the go. When you want something, you want it NOW, and you act decisively, impulsively, sometimes hastily and prematurely. Impatient, high-strung, and often nervous and tense, you find it difficult to slow down, pace yourself, or relax. You are fiercely individualistic and independent, self-willed and intolerant of restraints and restrictions imposed by others. You have a reckless disregard for authority and can be extremely rebellious. Cooperating with others is not your strong point! You are often brutally frank and abrupt with people, and can be quite impersonal when you are pursuing a desired goal. You may have an explosive temper when your will is blocked. You have a superabundance of energy and need much personal freedom to do things in your own style and at your own pace.

Chapter 6: Other Influences

Jupiter in Scorpio:

Your strength lies in your unwillingness to settle for superficiality or shallowness in any area of your life. You are unafraid of going to extremes and experiencing the depths. The mysterious and the unknown are very attractive to you. Your intuitive understanding of others' inner drives and motivations is highly developed also.

Jupiter in 8th house:

You are successful in dealing with other people's money or material assets, either through your work or by combining and sharing what you have with someone else (marriage or business partner). An "inheritance" (either material or psychological) which comes through your spouse or other close partner is likely to benefit you immensely.

Jupiter Trine Neptune:

You are very broad-minded and tolerant, and you have a rich, colorful imagination. You do not struggle with life as much as most people; you are inclined to follow the path of least resistance.

Saturn in Sagittarius:

You have a critical, cynical attitude towards many religions and philosophies. Without realizing it, you prevent yourself from appreciating new viewpoints and attitudes. You are more rigid and dogmatic than you realize. Your approach may also be too intellectual or moralistic. You take your own political beliefs and spiritual philosophy very seriously, worrying and fretting if you are not 100% clear about some ideology or theory.

Saturn in 10th house:

You are very conscientious, responsible, and concerned with your duty, your public image and reputation, and becoming a person of stature in the world. You understand the need for hard work and careful planning in order to accomplish anything substantial and you're capable of much self-discipline and patience once you set your sights on a goal.

But you are very judgmental and hard on yourself if you fail to attain success, and you can become dry, bitter, or cynical if the world doesn't recognize your efforts.

Saturn Trine Uranus:

You have a talent and ability for putting fresh ideas and inspiration into practice. You are ready and willing to utilize new ideas and methods, and you have a knack for gaining acceptance for a new idea and practically implementing it.

Uranus in Aries:

You are part of a 7 year group of people who are highly independent, self-reliant, self-willed, and rebellious. You are a rowdy bunch and your generation broke many time-honored traditions and customs. Your age group pioneered many new ideas that remained fashionable for many years; for example, rock 'n' roll was introduced by people of your age group.

Uranus in 2nd house:

You have a reckless, impulsive, or very unconventional attitude toward money, material things, and ownership. Above all, you do not want to be possessed by your possessions. The obligations of owning things are likely to feel oppressive to you.

Also, you may make your money in a field that is unconventional, highly unstable, or very inventive and innovative. Your fortunes are likely to fluctuate widely throughout your life.

Neptune in Pisces:

You are part of a 14 year group of people that are very intuitive, receptive, and imaginative. The arts and music are very important to your age group, and they flourish with your support, talent, and contributions. There is a rich and varied abundance of artistic and musical productivity from your age group.

All manner of religions and psychic investigations grow as well. There is a great interest in ultimate questions and answers and also in phenomena that do not seem to be explicable by scientific concepts. Mysticism is on the rise with your age group. The spiritual qualities of compassion and sacrifice are also highly valued and are more openly honored and respected than by other age groups. Spiritual and emotional sensitivity are so strong that there is a problem of escapism through alcohol and drugs, which is likely to increase during your generation.

Neptune in 1st house:

You are yielding, gentle, and impressionable. You tend to "melt" into your surroundings, and do not make a very powerful, vivid impression on others. Especially while young, you may not have a very clear sense of identity.

Sensitive and compassionate, you do not enjoy fighting and no matter what you profess, you are a pacifist at heart.

Pluto in Capricorn:

You are part of a 15 year group of people who have a very strong practical and realistic attitude towards life. You are an ambitious group also and you work hard to improve business, commerce, and other practical affairs. There always seems to be lots of hard work that needs to be done when your generation comes around, and your generation is ready and willing to do it.

Your age group is marked by its precociousness and seriousness. However, it is also as if you were somehow cut off from many of your inner feelings. There is very little of the "child" in most members of your age group, and you have a much cooler, more detached attitude to life than other age groups. You are mature, but also rather aloof. You are ethical but tend to lack empathy and heart. For many members of your age group, it is as if they were cut off from their deeper, emotional side. Naturally, it is important not to let this tendency become too unbalanced, as it can lead to a harsh, insensitive attitude, and a tendency to become involved in corrupt and unethical practices.

Pluto in 11th house:

You may have a deep aversion to groups, associations, clubs, or organizations of any kind. Any such group you become involved in is likely to be either for intense personal growth, change, and healing, or centered around social change and revising society in some manner.

Your Tikkun

Our astral chart contains a position that unveils secrets to your generational line (Numbers 14:18); the lunar node, the point of correction -- tikkun. This position comprises two diametrically opposing aspects that conventional astrology calls the south node and the north node. The point of correction brings to light the barriers that have been buried deep within our generation through the ages. The study of this point reveals the challenges and blockages we perceptually face, the nature of our impediments, and the aspects we must correct in order to pursue our personal evolution and seek a superior and more elevated consciousness. If we fail to undertake serious spiritual work during our lifetime given us by the Creator, our children will inevitably face the same process and again face the same obstacles. This point shows us our weaknesses as well as the groundwork on which we must build our future. Thanks to God for this tool, we have the ability to recognize the baggage we have brought along from our parents, our grandparents, even back 3 and 4 generations to our great-great grandparents, and turn it around and be redeemed from all its ill effects, so that our children thereafter have a greater beginning, thanks to Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior of the World.

You were born between the dates of May 10, 2017 to November 6, 2018.

Your Tikkun is Leo.

The person born with a tikkun in Leo carries the life of someone in their generational line of an Aquarius.

You are an individual who is set apart. In the life of the Aquarian in your generational line, they were considered important and unique, and you are blessed with tremendous inner power, ample creativity, and fierce ambition for your life time. The Aquarian in your generational line was not a model of discipline, however, and you may have the issue of wanting to seek originality at any cost and become a rule-breaker. As a result, you may have difficulty getting others to take you seriously.

Although keeping yourself apart may strengthen you, you overcome doubts by confronting them. Relationships mean the world to you, but you may be afraid of being abandoned. You may tolerate abuse in order to maintain closeness, and you may have the feeling of not receiving in return for what you had given. Beware of relationships dominating you, for it may keep you from developing to your full spiritual potential. You may have several opportunities to rise from abject poverty to the heights of affluence. Lack of discipline may scar you severely, an issue which prevented the Aquarian in your generational line to lose focus on his/her real goals. There is an acute sense of justice and equality carrying through to you, and there is an energy for you to utilize for noble causes, but you may prefer to deal with masses of people rather than with individual human beings. You may see yourself in the Future rather than in the Present. The Tikkun in Leo points you toward abandoning desire for superficial originality in favor of developing your capacity to serve humanity. You must pursue this path for yourself, not for the eyes of others. You have, in fact, more than one key from previous members in your generational line to use, Your ambition will help you find a true and noble cause through which you will share your gifts with humanity.

Your tikkun suggest that you will be given the opportunity to Lead, provided that you do so in a selfless way. Along this path, you can use your inner strength, creativity, and originality to reveal new opportunities in the world around you.
